

What are the building blocks of a high quality Early Years curriculum?

Early Years expert, Jan Dubiel, identified by the TES as one of the ten most influential people in British Education 2018, will be delivering the keynote for our conference.

Offering insight into how curriculum will be inspected under the new framework, we are welcoming Gill Jones HMI, Ofsted's Deputy Director of Early Education, Wendy Ratcliff HMI, one of Ofsted's Early Years specialists and Sir Kevan Collins, Chief Executive, Education Endowment Foundation (Thursday only).

The conference will also feature content from respected Early Years professionals within Newham and beyond.

We are thrilled to have Deputy mayor of London, Joanne McCartney, opening the conference.

A wide range of breakout workshops will be on offer from a variety of Early Years Professionals offering practical advice and tested ideas on how you can develop or transform curriculum in your own settings.
